12 OMNIBUS ORDER RE: MOTIONS TO 13 SEAL

14 (Re: Docket Nos. 212, 223, 229, 236, 245, 15 247, 255, 257)

16 Before the court are several administrative motions to seal. “Historically, courts have 17 recognized a ‘general right to inspect and copy public records and documents, including judicial 18 records and documents.’”<sup>1</sup> Accordingly, when considering a sealing request, “a ‘strong
19 presumption in favor of access’ is the starting point.”<sup>2</sup> Parties seeking to seal judicial records 20 relating to dispositive motions bear the burden of overcoming the presumption with “compelling 21 reasons” that outweigh the general history of access and the public policies favoring disclosure.<sup>3</sup>

22 However, “while protecting the public’s interest in access to the courts, we must remain
23 mindful of the parties’ right to access those same courts upon terms which will not unduly harm
24 their competitive interest.”<sup>4</sup> Records attached to nondispositive motions therefore are not subject

1 to the strong presumption of access.<sup>5</sup> Because the documents attached to nondispositive motions
2 “are often unrelated, or only tangentially related, to the underlying cause of action,” parties
3 moving to seal must meet the lower “good cause” standard of Rule 26(c).<sup>6</sup> As with dispositive
4 motions, the standard applicable to nondispositive motions requires a “particularized showing”<sup>7</sup>
5 that “specific prejudice or harm will result” if the information is disclosed.<sup>8</sup> “Broad allegations of 6 harm, unsubstantiated by specific examples of articulated reasoning” will not suffice.<sup>9</sup> A 7 protective order sealing the documents during discovery may reflect the court’s previous 8 determination that good cause exists to keep the documents sealed,<sup>10</sup> but a blanket protective order 9 that allows the parties to designate confidential documents does not provide sufficient judicial 10 scrutiny to determine whether each particular document should remain sealed.<sup>11</sup>

11 In addition to making particularized showings of good cause, parties moving to seal 12 documents must comply with the procedures established by Civ. L.R. 79-5. Pursuant to 13 Civ. L.R. 79-5(b), a sealing order is appropriate only upon a request that establishes the document 14 is “sealable,” or “privileged or protectable as a trade secret or otherwise entitled to protection
15 under the law.” “The request must be narrowly tailored to seek sealing only of sealable material,
16 and must conform with Civil L.R. 79-5(d).”<sup>12</sup> “Within 4 days of the filing of the Administrative
